

the project

WHAT IS THE PROJECT ABOUT?

Beddington Heights was a part of the This is My Neighbourhood program from 2015-2016. The City of Calgary is leading the project, working closely with the Beddington Heights Community Association. They are assisted by the design and planning firm, 818 Studio, and Russell Public Relations.

The next phase, Reimagine Beddington, is intended to engage residents in developing a community vision that will help guide City programs, services and small-scale infrastructure improvements.

The City is providing support for the community as we create a long term plan for our open spaces, developing them to meet the current needs of our neighbourhood.

WHERE ARE WE IN THE PROCESS?

There have already been several community engagement sessions since 2015.

These sessions have also informed the writing of a set of open space guidelines for community use.

Feedback from future sessions will be used to develop this document, which is why we want you to give your ideas at our upcoming events!

future plans

818 Studio, a design and planning firm, is creating a set of open space guidelines that will empower our community members to undertake the planning and development of Beddington's outdoor spaces.

This document is intended as a guide to assist our community in undertaking any improvements that were identified through the This is My Neighbourhood project. They will serve as inspiration and guides to help our community upgrade our open spaces as we see fit.

We need your help to decide what to start with! The upcoming engagement sessions will help us understand your priorities, and how you see the future of Beddington.

seeking park ambassadors

for each Beddington
Park and Pathway

Do you love your nearest park or pathway?

Would you like to help steward it into the future?

Park Ambassadors will be key communicators between the Reimagine Beddington Committee and your park's or pathway's neighbours and users. They will:

- Be kept up-to-date by the Reimagine Beddington Committee
- Keep neighbours and users informed about the project when something impacts "your" park
- Seek neighbours' and users' input
